Executive Level Recruitment Busy As City Rebuilds

Christchurch executive recruitment company Decipher Group, is experiencing unprecedented demand for their services.

As Canterbury shows explosive growth with the number of jobs being advertised on Trade Me up 81 per cent compared with a year ago, Leanne Crozier says a significant number of expats are keen to come home to be a part of the rebuild and the growth in Christchurch is providing them with roles for which they are keen to apply.

“We are the busiest we have been,” says Crozier. “Not only are the number of executive level roles available more than double than for the same time last year, but the candidates continue to be of a very high standard and there are more of them than last April.”

Decipher Group says new companies to Christchurch and candidates want to be here for the exciting growth time ahead. Leanne Crozier says executive candidates and companies appreciate that the very latest in technology and business systems will be utilised as the city rebuilds from an almost blank canvas in many areas.

“New business districts, new IT hubs, new infrastructure, cutting edge technology – it’s an exciting time for business and career focused executives,” says Leanne Crozier “and that’s being reflected in the increase in the number of executive roles for which we are recruiting, compared to a year ago.”
